USPA NEWS - It is with great pride that we announce that Prof. h.c. Rafa? Marcin Wasik, Secretary-General of the International Human Rights Commission IHRC Corporation, widely acknowledged as a global Peacemaker, has been honoured with the President's Volunteer Service Award – Gold Level, bestowed on behalf of President Donald J. Trump, President of the United States of America.

This award serves as a profound acknowledgment of Secretary-General Wasik's exceptional contributions and unwavering commitment to promoting peace, advancing human rights, and leading impactful international humanitarian efforts.

Under his visionary leadership, the IHRC has expanded its global reach, mobilizing tens of thousands of volunteers across numerous countries. Through his dedication, the organization has initiated humanitarian missions in critical regions worldwide, supported peace initiatives, and engaged in intergovernmental collaborations to effectively address crises and mitigate their consequences.

Prof. h.c. Rafa? Marcin Wasik is also the driving force behind various educational, developmental, and social programs aimed at integrating local communities and fostering intercultural dialogue. His diplomatic and negotiation efforts have repeatedly contributed to conflict resolution and the promotion of mutual respect and understanding on the international stage.

The conferment of this prestigious award not only honors Secretary-General Wasik but also recognises the collective efforts of the global IHRC community, whose dedication under his guidance continues to make a significant impact in creating a better world.

The entire IHRC community extends heartfelt congratulations to Prof. Wasik on this well-deserved honor and wishes him continued success in his vital mission.
